HIGH HILL BATTLE.

For Ferocity It Was the Most Remarkable in the History of the Siege.

WERE MANY DEEDS OF HEROISM.

Port Arthur's War Hardened Veterans Shuddered at the Sight of the Slaughter of the Japanese.

Some Times the Fighting Was Hand-To-Hand With Rifle Muzzles at the Breasts of the Determined Contestants.

Chefoo, Dec. 19.—For ferocity and sustained desperation on both sides, the struggle for the possession of High hill probably was the most remarkable in the history of the siege of Port Arthur—a siege noted for slaughter. This statement is based on an interview which a press correspondent had with Commander Mizzenoff, executive officer of the battleship Poltava.

Commander Mizzenoff, who was wounded in the leg during the battle of High hill, said:

"Since the Japanese, on the 28th (month not mentioned) began their attack on High hill, which they call 203 Metre hill, the fighting has been continuous. The steep and sandy slopes of the hill were streaked and dotted with snow when the Japanese began the battle, which was destined to furnish so many deeds of heroism that they became commonplace. There was so much slaughter that even Port Arthur's war hardened veterans shuddered at the sight.

Murderous Deluge From Rifles.

"Japanese were compelled to clamber up the slopes of the hill, in many cases without firing, in the face of one of the most murderous deluges ever poured from rifles and machine guns. I was there, and it seemed to me that flesh and blood would be unable to stand our fire for a minute.

"The enemy went down in squads and companies, but always there were others grimly coming forward. Their bravery was beyond praise, as was that of our men. Some times the fighting was hand-to-hand, with the muzzles of the rifles at the breasts of the contestants, the bayonets being used as swords.

"The sides of the hill were strewn with bodies and the snow was crimsoned with the blood of the wounded, some of whom had crawled into it, seeking in its coldness surcease for their dying agonies.

"Eventually, as in similar instances which were to follow, we retired, leaving the work of driving the enemy from the summit to restless guns of the neighboring forts, notably those of Liadot mountain.

No Mercy Asked Nor Given.

"The second and third assaults were replicas of the first, although the second was the most ferocious, being nearly all hand-to-hand fighting in which mercy was neither asked nor given.

"A remarkable incident occurred in the third assault as the Russians, still facing the enemy, retreated. A Japanese standard-bearer, holding his flag aloft, climbed the pinnacle and fell dead clutching the colors. In his tracks another arose with the colors, only to fall instantly with a dozen wounds in his body. Six others followed and met the same fate. At last when the ninth man appeared a Russian officer exclaimed: 'Don't shoot that fellow with the flag, it will be planted anyhow.'

"The Japanese adopted a curious expedient which assisted them greatly in the third assault. They had prepared huge piles of wood, coal and cornstalks which they ignited, the wind being in the faces of the Russians. The resultant fire was immense and the flames and smoke compelled the Russians to retire.

A Ghastly Picture Revealed.

"The red glare from this fire disclosed a ghastly picture more infernal than ever dreamed by Dante.

"The assaults thus far had cost the Japanese easily 12,000 men, while our own were under 2,000. The sides of the hill were literally covered with dead and wounded. The trenches were rivulets of blood and every visible spot was dyed crimson.

"We might retake the hill," said Gen. Stoessel, "but the hill is not of sufficient importance to us to justify further sacrifice."

"Scarcely an officer participating in the battle of High hill escaped unhurt and the proportion of young officers killed was very high.

"Since then numerous small engagements have been waged, but the responsibility for keeping the Japanese from occupying the hill in force or from mounting guns thereon, has been left mainly to the shrapnel fire from other forts.

JUDGE EMMETT DICKSON.

It Is Said He Will Succeed Cantrill on the Circuit Bench.

Lexington, Ky., Dec. 19.—It was reported in this city Sunday night by a state official that Gov. Beckham had decided to appoint Judge Emmett Dickson, of Paris, Bourbon county, to succeed Judge James E. Cantrill on the bench of the Scott circuit court, consequent upon the latter's elevation to the bench of the court of appeals. Great political interest is centered upon this appointment by the adherents of both parties, as Judge Cantrill's successor will be called upon to preside at the next trial of Caleb Powers on the charge of complicity in the killing of Gov. Goebel. It is said that Judge Dickson will be acceptable to both sides, as he is a lawyer of ability and a man of high personal honor and integrity.

CUSPIDORS IN COACHES.

Davies County Grand Jury Returned Indictments Against Railways.

Owensboro, Ky., Dec. 19.—The Davies county grand jury returned indictments against the Louisville, Henderson & St. Louis, Illinois Central and Louisville & Nashville Railroad Cos., for failure to provide cuspidors in the coaches. The law on the subject says a spittoon shall be provided for every seat in the coach. This is the first time action of the kind has ever been taken in the state since the law was passed.

The Louisville, Henderson & St. Louis Co. was also indicted for failure to maintain a suitable waiting room for the traveling public in Owensboro.

Jockey Parker Shot.

Lexington, Ky., Dec. 19.—During a shooting affray in a saloon at Paris early Sunday morning Ellis Parker, colored, a jockey connected with the racing stable of Talbott Bros., of Paris, was shot and probably fatally wounded by Charles Holly, also colored. The latter was arrested. Parker was not involved in the quarrel, being an innocent bystander.

Watching the Wildcatters.

Lexington, Ky., Dec. 19.—Wildcat drilling in the Kentucky-Tennessee oil fields is now being watched with keen interest. The drill is being vigorously worked in a number of undeveloped fields, and during the past few days good indications of oil have been found in several wildcat regions.

Burley Tobacco Growers.

Lexington, Ky., Dec. 19.—At the mass convention of the burley tobacco growers, held in this county, subscriptions were taken to an additional 440 shares of stock of the Burley Growers' association at $10 per share. This makes over $20,000 subscribed.

She Had a Close Call.

Winchester, Ky., Dec. 19.—Miss Goldie Perry, operator on the typesetting machine in the Sun-Sentinel office, was caught in the belting as she attempted to stop the engine. Fortunately her skirts gave way and she was saved from a horrible death.

Died From the Shock.

Covington, Ky., Dec. 19.—Meray R. Jones died after a lingering illness. Mrs. Jones never recovered from the shock caused by the sudden death of her daughter Mabel just previous to the latter's graduation from high school several years ago.

John W. Vreeland Buys a Paper.

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 19.—John W. Vreeland, democratic state central committee man from the Fifth congressional district, bought outright from Marshall W. Neal the entire interest in the Farmer's Home Journal. The capitalization is $20,000.

A New Coal Road.

Sergeant, Ky., Dec. 19.—The Interstate railroad is to be extended from Appalachia, Va., via Kelley View to Norton, Va., 12 miles, penetrating a section rich in coal and minerals. Work will be commenced at once.

Heavily Insured.

Nathan Kept His Word.

Vanceburg, Ky., Dec. 19.—Nathan Grant, 60, committed suicide by shooting himself. He leaves a widow and three children. He told a friend a few days ago that he intended to kill himself before the holidays.

HOLIDAYS RECESS.

Both Branches of the Congress Will Adjourn Wednesday Until January 4.

AN EXODUS OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The Indications Are That the House Will Be Without a Quorum Until Adjournment Day.

A Large Number of Senators Have Left and No Business Will Be Attempted in That Body Until After the Holidays.

Washington, Dec. 19.—The exodus of members of the house from the city since the adjournment Friday indicates that the lower branch of congress will be without quorum when it meets Monday. Should this be the case and should any member make the point on the floor of the chamber, the only thing that can be done is to adjourn from day to day until Wednesday, when the Christmas holiday recess until January 4 begins.

The questions of where the inaugural ball shall be held is the only matter of legislation in sight in the house for the week. This will come up under suspension of the rules, on a motion from Representative Morrell, of Pennsylvania. The senator has proposed the pension office and the house the congressional library. There are indications that a deadlock has been reached on the matter and that when it is discussed again the capitol building will be proposed as a compromise.

Mere Formalities in the Senate.

The senate will adjourn on Wednesday for the Christmas holidays and no business will be attempted previous to that time. A large number of the senators already have left for their homes to spend the holidays and there is an understanding that after being called to order on Monday the senate will adjourn till Wednesday, and that Wednesday's proceedings will be confined to the mere formalities. Soon after the senate reconvenes in January, the committee on appropriations will report the legislative appropriation bill. It will be the policy of the senate to take it up as soon as possible and to have other supply measures follow speedily.

OREGON LAND FRAUDS.

Senator Mitchell and Congressman Hermann Go To Portland.

Washington, Dec. 19.—Senator Mitchell and Representative Blinger Hermann, of Oregon, left Washington for Portland to appear before the federal grand jury and face charges which, they have been advised, have been made implicating them in Oregon land frauds. Both Senator Mitchell and Mr. Hermann declare in most positive terms that they are absolutely innocent and have nothing to fear from returning to Oregon.

WATERWAY COMMISSION.

One Will Be Appointed By the United States and Canada.

Ottawa, Dec. 19.—An international waterway commission is to be appointed by the United States and Canadian governments to report upon waters adjacent to the boundary line. Canadian boats are passing through channels in United States territory and vice versa without any real authority and this commission will deal with these matters so that an understanding can be reached between both countries.

American Pacific Squadron.

Santiago de Chile, Dec. 19.—The American cruiser Marblehead, Commander Holmes, has arrived at Iquique. The remainder of the American Pacific squadron, under command of Rr. Adm. Goodrich, is expected to arrive at Coquimbo this week.

Mother of Senator Clark Dead.

Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 19.—Mrs. Mary Andrews Clark, mother of Senator William A. Clark and J. Ross Clark, is dead at her home in this city after an illness of but seven days, aged 92 years. Mrs. Clark was born near Connellsville, Pa.

Well-Known Railway Attorney Dead.

St. Paul, Dec. 19.—Marcus D. Grover, general counsel of the Great Northern railroad, and one of the best known railroad attorneys, died at his home in this city early Sunday after an illness of about two weeks. He was 62 years old.

Jeffco, Tenn., Dec. 19.—A man said to be Cal Marcus near Marsh Siler Sunday afternoon shot Red Ash, Ky., during a dispute over 25 cents in a card game. Siler will die. No arrests have been made.

PLEADED NOT GUILTY.

Mrs. Chadwick, Beckwith and Spear Arraigned Before Judge Wing.

Cleveland, O., Dec. 19.—Mrs. Chadwick was arraigned before Judge Wing, of the United States district court, Saturday afternoon, pleaded not guilty to every charge brought against her, declined to give bail and was remanded to jail to await trial.

President Beckwith and Cashier Spear, of the Citizens' National bank of Oberlin, were arraigned at the same time and pleaded not guilty. They were allowed to depart after furnishing bonds, each to the amount of $25,000, an increase of $15,000 over the value of the bond they had previously given.

Mrs. Chadwick Sunday spent her first Sunday in jail. She now has a companion in the jail, a young woman, detained for examination as to her sanity. The woman seemed much interested in Mrs. Chadwick and the two conversed quite freely.

YOUNG WOMAN'S BODY FOUND.

Was Without Clothing and Features Burned Beyond Recognition.

Colorado Springs, Col., Dec. 19.—Without a vestige of clothing, her features burned beyond recognition, the body of a young woman was found Sunday on the west slope of Cutler mountain. The hands were clinched as though she had died in agony. The well manneured nails and the glossy condition of the tightly coiled hair, which the flames had failed to harm, prove the young woman to have been of the better class.

The case is shrouded in the deepest mystery. No one has been reported missing and strangers have been few in this especial district. There are indications that the girl died of poison and a post-mortem examination will be made.

BISHOP SPELLMEYER.

Methodists of Cincinnati and Vicinity Gave Him a Welcome.

Cincinnati, Dec. 19.—Methodists of Cincinnati and vicinity, representing four conferences, united in a big rally and welcome for Bishop Spellmeyer, who at the time of his election to that office by the general conference at Los Angeles last May was located in Newark, N. J. More than 4,000 people crowded into Music hall and listened to a service by Bishop Spellmeyer, followed by an address by Bishop Waldron, retired. At the conclusion of the meeting resolutions endorsing the proposed new peace conference at The Hague were adopted.

USED DYNAMITE.

More Than a Mile of a Partly Completed Pipe Line Blown Up.

Coffeyville, Kan., Dec. 19.—Between Liberty and the Verdigris river, more than a mile of the partly completed pipe line of the Kansas Natural Gas Co. was blown up with dynamite by masked men some time during Saturday night. The perpetrators are unknown. Besides being masked they were otherwise disguised. The explosions are the result of a fight that has been waged for some time against the pipe line company, which is a foreign corporation, by the farmers of this section, who resent the piping of the gas to Missouri.

THE TEXTILE STRIKE.

Civic Federation May Be Asked to Choose An Arbitration Board.

Fall River, Mass., Dec. 19.—The textile council voted Sunday to submit an arbitration proposition for the settlement of the strike in the cotton mills to the individual unions, and in case of labor approval by a vote on Tuesday to ask the Civic Federation to choose a board of arbitration.

The strike, which is now entering upon its 22d week, was declared when the manufacturers announced a new wage scale, reducing the income of the operatives 12½ per cent. Thirty-seven mills and nearly 26,000 employees were involved.

Body Washed Ashore.

Norfolk, Va., Dec. 19.—After hanging head downward from the rigging of the wrecked schooner Montana for a week the body of Henry Edwards was washed to sea when the ship pounded to pieces. All the crew with the exception of Edwards were saved.

New York, Dec. 19.—Dr. Woodrow Wilson, president of the Princeton university, who underwent an operation at a hospital here Friday, is reported to be resting comfortably. It was said that he would probably be able to leave the hospital within two weeks.

Tokio, Dec. 19.—Maj. Kuhn, U. S. A., who was military attache with the Japanese second army, has been reassigned to witness the fall of Port Arthur. Maj. Kuhn departed for Shinbashi Sunday.

GALES IN THE EAST

The Most Violent That Have Occurred For Several Years Raged For Hours.

MANY VESSELS BLOWN ASHORE.

The Atlantic Liners Arriving at New York Report Heavy Weather During the Whole Passage.

The Steamer Glen Island Was Burned Near Hempstead, L. I., and Seven of Her Crew and Two Passengers Perished.

New York, Dec. 19.—The snow storm and gale which struck the coast Saturday and continued till the early hours Sunday morning was the most violent that has occurred for several years. Reports from the New Jersey and New England coast and from incoming steamers tell of furious gales and many disasters.

At Vineyard Haven over 15 schooners, anchored in the harbor, were blown ashore early Sunday and several others were damaged in collisions. Off the Bay Head, N. J., life saving station, the schooner Lizzie H. Drayton, bound for Providence from Baltimore, went ashore, the crew being rescued by the life savers.

The Cunarder, Umbria, and the American liner St. Paul, both of which arrived Sunday, reported heavy weather and adverse gales during the whole passage.

Anchor Line Steamer Went Ashore.

The Anchor line steamer Astoria, bound for Glasgow, went ashore Sunday in the lower bay, but later floated without injury and proceeded.

In the river and harbor traffic was for a while during the worst of the storm at a standstill. So heavy was the snowfall that lights could not be seen on the river a boat's length ahead and 40 boats and other craft proceeded at a diminished headway. No accidents of any moment were reported.

In the city the snow which began Saturday afternoon fell almost without intermission until early Sunday morning, by which time eight inches had fallen. There was little interruption of traffic, 13,000 snow shovelers and 4,000 teams being set to work as soon as the snow ceased falling to clean off the principal thoroughfares. In the afternoon the weather cleared and with the coming of bright sunshine Central park and the speedway were thronged with sleighs.

Divers After Dead Bodies.

By the burning of the Starlin line steamer Glen Island in Long Island sound Saturday nine lives were lost and property roughly estimated at $250,000 was destroyed.

That more lives were not sacrificed undoubtedly was due to the personal courage of the officers and crew and the excellent discipline maintained when a horrible death for all seemed almost a certainty.

Early Sunday morning the wreck of the ill-fated Glen Island was found with only the smokestack visible, near Hempstead Harbor, L. I. The general manager of the Starlin transportation line has sent divers to the wreck and will spare no effort to find the bodies of the seven members of the crew and two passengers who perished in the burning steamer.

BOILER GASKET BLEW OFF.

One Man Scalded to Death and Four Seriously Injured.

Chicago, Dec. 19.—Arthur Kerr, of Buffalo, was scalded to death and four of his fellow workmen were seriously injured here Sunday, when a defective gasket on the boiler of the steamer Bethlehem blew off, allowing the steam and hot water to flood the engine room where the men were at work. Kerr was a fireman on the steamer. The injured: John McEari, badly scalded about legs and hands; Peter O'Toole, scalded about limbs and body; Stanley Rogers, badly scalded; J. L. Walker, engineer, burned about face, arms and legs.

Blizzard in New England.

Boston, Dec. 19.—The storm Sunday was of blizzard severity along the southern New England coast. All wires on Cape Cod were prostrated and there has been no communication south of Wareham by land lines since early Sunday morning.

Nashville, Tenn., Dec. 19.—At Woodbury, Cannon county, Sunday, Thos. Porter, a prominent merchant, shot and instantly killed A. J. Smithson, an attorney. The tragedy grew out of a sensational lawsuit.

The interior of a gold-bearing rock was inspected in an Oregon town by means of the Rontgen rays, and veins of gold were as plainly visible as if they had been on the surface.

The remains were brought here for interment in the Maysville Cemetery, members of the Cincinnati leaf tobacco trade attending in a body.

MAYSVILLE MAN THERE.

Was One of the First to Cross the Damaged Bridge in Pursuit of the Confederate General.

In a communication to the Times-Star concerning the history of the damage done during the Civil War to the bridge over the Elk river at Charleston, which recently fell, causing the death of several school children, Dr. G. M. Williams of this city says: "I believe that the cables of the bridge were originally cut by the Confederate Gen. Wise. He was being hotly pressed through the valley of the Kanawha by the Federal troops under Gen. Cox, and cut the north end of the west cable partly through, in order to throw into the river the greater part of a regiment of his pursuers. I was with the advance guard of the Union army and was among the first to cross the bridge. I well remember seeing the gashes made by Wise's men as we crossed at routetop."

SILVER WEDDING.

The Norris Home Near Fern Leaf the Scene of a Brilliant Social Event.

The twenty-fifth anniversary of the marriage of Henry L. Norris and Mary E. Kirk was celebrated Saturday December 17 from 12 to 4, and again from 7 to 10 o'clock.

The house was profusely decorated, the parlors and dining room in red and green.

Mr. and Mrs. Norris were assisted in receiving by their son, Mr. Lucien Norris, daughter, Miss Tillie, Misses Minnie Norris and Mayme Wallingford and Mrs. Garrett Jefferson of Millersburg. Misses Black of Germantown and Susie Norris presided in the dining room. Pauline, a daughter, served delightful frappe, while Ruth, a younger daughter, kindly invited the guests to register.

Mr. and Mrs. Norris stood in the front parlor and as they greeted their many friends, the faithful couple pledged anew the love that had been a mutual inspiration for twenty-five years, and smiled with responsive feeling and tender emotions. After congratulations and good wishes, guests repaired to the dining room and partook of a repast in keeping with the surroundings.

The hours were passed by delightful music rendered by Mrs. Russell White of Bernard and in conversation and the pleasures of social cheer.

Many handsome and fitting presents were received. The occasion was a charming one in all respects and constituted a happy reunion of two whose lives had intermingled through years of well remembered association, reviving many fond memories. The following lines were sent by an old friend of Mrs. Norris:

Congratulations to you we gladly send,
But regret to say that we cannot attend
This celebration of your wedding day.
Twenty-five years ago I went
You were the happiest bride I've ever seen,
And to-day 'midst all the pleasures life
You are the same true and loving wife.
As down life's journey you walk hand in hand,
May you be protected by the same strong man,
And when you celebrate the wedding of gold
Am sure you will be young instead of old.

HELLO, LOUISVILLE!

Proposed New Telephone Service Between Maysville and the Falls City.

An Ohio syndicate, represented by Mr. George Shaw of Carlisle is in town trying to perfect an organization of telephone companies with a view of constructing a first-class metallic service between this city and Louisville via Carlisle and Lexington, giving Maysville telephone communication with Central Kentucky towns and Louisville an outlet north by way of this city and Portsmouth.

A meeting of stockholders is being held at this writing in the office of the Maysville Telephone Company, where the foregoing plans are being discussed. The conference may extend into the afternoon, since the local hello people propose going very thoroughly into details.

W. H. Key, fire and accident insurance.

Hon. John W. Alexander had a bad fall on the outside steps at the rear of his residence Sunday morning, fracturing a rib and sustaining other painful injuries. His condition this morning is pronounced very serious.

The L. and N. will run an extra train next Thursday for the benefit of holiday shoppers who want to come to Maysville for their Christmas goods. Returning, it will not leave Maysville until 4:30 o'clock, giving ample time for looking and purchasing. Round-trip tickets for this train will be sold at one and one-third fare.

The tract of land known as the Reespees field, situated inside the south corporation of Dover and containing thirty-three acres, has been sold to Mrs. Fred Brown by the owners, Capt. A. C. Reespees of Lexington, and A. F. Reespees of Covington. The Messenger says it is one of the best tracts of land in Kentucky and contains one of the finest Indian mounds in the Ohio Valley.

Counterfeiters are again at work in Lexington, and Maysville merchants need not be surprised if some of the bad coin turns up here during the holiday rush. This time a very unique method is pursued in order to deceive the unwary, the "queer" being nothing more than a copper cent silvered so as to give it the appearance of a ten-cent piece. Except by a critical examination the deception would not be detected since the copper pieces used are about the same size as a dime. Upon examination, however, the trick is easily discerned, since the Indian head and wording are plainly seen.

These goods are now being unpacked and placed on our shelves and in our show windows. The list comprises such suitable gifts as these:

SCHOOL BOOK CASE.

Decision of the Court of Appeals in Suit of American Book Company Versus County Superintendent Wells.

A bond was executed by appellant, American Book Company, to the Commonwealth of Kentucky in the sum of $10,000, conditioned that appellant would, if its school text book were adopted by any of the county boards of examiners of this State, sell to the patrons of the common schools of such county the books published by appellant at prices not greater than it sold the same books to the patrons of the schools in other States. Thereafter appellant contracted with the Board of Examiners of Mason County for use of certain of its books in the common schools of said county.

In an action by the Superintendent of Schools in said county of Mason against appellant for a breach of said bond in which plaintiff alleged and proved that such books were sold to the schools of Mason County by appellant at a price greater than that charged by appellant for the same books in the State of Ohio.

Held—That such sales were a breach of appellant's bond.

Second—The fact that the appellant furnished the books to the retailers in this State at the list price named in the bond with the agreement that they were to sell them to the school children at a discount of 20 per cent., while under the laws of the State of Ohio appellant was required to discount them in that State 25 per cent., is not a valid excuse to a charge of a breach of appellant's bond in charging a greater price in Kentucky than in Ohio, or the further fact that it is more expensive to merchandise appellant's books in Kentucky than in Ohio is not a valid defense.

Third—The question is reargued whether the sum of $10,000 can be recovered in one action upon the breach of the bond as liquidated damages. We have re-examined the question and remain satisfied with the conclusion reached on this point in the opinion of Commonwealth vs. Glun, 111 Ky., 110, which holds that the whole

Mr. Henry Bertram, boots and shoes, of 225 Market street, says: "The great value of Doan's Kidney Pills are quickly proven. I procured them at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drug store, corner of West Second and Market street. In a very short time I was cured of backache which had troubled me for some time. I gave some to a friend who suffered greatly from kidney ailments and he said the results obtained from their use proved that Doan's Kidney Pills are a preparation which possesses remarkable value."

sum can be recovered in one action. The penalty is fixed by the statute and a statutory penalty is never void or unenforceable because in the opinion of the court it is harsh.
